'World cup' indoors?

In order to gain TV coverage from 0/28 for the erage from 0/28 for the planned Buffalo Indoor Series, the VSF is prepared to invite NSW State League championship contenders Sydney Croatia and Melita Eagles to compete.

The four-night, six-a-side event first was proposed last May. Buffalo Sports agreed to underwrite the series for $20,000 providing TV coverage was obtained.

VSF publicity officer, Law Stafrace, couldn't attract interest from the commercial networks or the Australian Broadcasting Corporation. Even 0/28 baulked after learning of the initial format, involving only clubs from Melbourne. Since then Stafrace has revamped the series and is prepared to run it either as a club competition or a "national teams" event. 0/28" complicitatival charges may appose ompetution or a matorial teams event. 0/28's multicultural charter may prompt to favor a 24-nation event with tams presenting Greece, Italy, Yugoslavia, creatin, Macedonie, Malta, Germany, ustralia, Spain, Ireland, Argentina, Scot-and and ao on.

and and so on.

If the competition is run on a club basis, tafrace will invite Sydney Croatia and fielita to join Melbourne's NSL and State ague clubs. If Melbourne's NSL continent increases from four to eight clubs hen that would be perfect for Stafrace. Ic'd invite them and the 14 State League lubs and add Sydney Croatis and Melita, or reach his preferred target of 24 particients.

Originally, Stafrace wanted to start the indoor tournament on the last Monday of this month or the first Monday in September. That's been changed. The tournament now will be held either in October or next ber. That's been changed. The tournament now will be held either in October or next Fabruary.

He's not worried about clashing with the traditional pre-season night series which runs in February, and was known as the Ampol Cup until the company pulled out this year. That tournament will go ahead, under a different title if the VSF finds a new sponsor, on its usual Friday night and Saturday night-double header basis while the Buffelo Indoor Series starts on a Monday and ends three nights later, on a Thursday.

The Buffalo Indoor Series will be held at the recently completed $10.5 million Victorian Indoor Sports Centre, part of the Olympic Park complex.

Stafface sees tranendous crowd-pulling potential in running the event as antional teams competition. He's well aware of the anormous public interest once generated by the old "World Cup" held in Melbourne in the 1950's and 80's.—CRAIG MACKENZIE

NSW federation president Karl Rodny will call on VSF support to quash the NSL's proposed 24-team, two-league format for 1984.

And Victoria may respond favorably. If so, the consensus reached recently at ASF executive level will be shattered.

will be shattered.

VSF State League chairman, Vito Cilauro, was expected to call an extraordinary meeting of all State League clubs as we went to Press. It was expected that the Metropolitan League board of menagement, under the chairmanship of John Hodgson, would do likewise.

These meetings will discuss the breakdown in negotiations between the States and the NSL over NSL voting rights within the Victorian and NSW federations and the impasse in discussions over the composition of the new rights within the Victorian and NSW federations and the impasse in discussions over the composition of the new leagues of management to administer the affairs of the proposed two new leagues.

VSF and NSL representatives held an informal meeting at Soccer House in Melbourne last Friday but were unable to reach agreement. The VSF was represented by Cliauro, Hodgson, George Wallace and John Dimisis. The NSL was represented by Sam Papassavas, Tony Kowac and John Branov.

"We haven't agreed on anything," Cliauro declared after the meeting.

The Sam Papassavas that the same papassavas that it is we who are helping them By taking away the best four clubs in the VSF, the NSL surely isn't doing us any favors.

"It told Sam Papasavas that he must be dreaming when he mentioned his idea of what the breakdown should be for voting rights in the VSF. At present the State League has 56 votes, as has the Metropolitan League. "Sam suggested that the eight Melbourne-based NSL clubs should have the existing powers of the State League, with the State League and Metro League combined having less votes. That's simply not on. "A second solution put forward by the NSL people was that the eight NSL clubs should have 40 votes, the State League 28 votes and the Metropolitan League was the trapel that he eight NSL clubs should have 40 votes, the State League 28 votes and the Metropolitan League by 80 votes. The risk there is that the NSL and State League by 80 votes, the State League combined having less votes. That is simply not on. "A second solution put forward by the NSL people was that the eight NSL clubs should have 40 votes, the State League 28 votes and the Metropolitan League by 80 votes. That was a state to the state of the state to the state that the eight NSL clubs should have 40 votes, the State League combined have 56 votes, with the Metropolitan League by 80 votes to 56.

"What we propose is that the NSL an meeting to discuss the NSL proposals for restructuring its competition.

The NSL says that it will go ahead with its 24-team, two-league plan with or without State federation support. It simply will call for applicants to join the new-look NSL and admit them until the 24-team target is reached. The states can go to hell.

Or to F.I.F.A.

The States, if rankled enough, could pass a resolution forcing the ASF to propose that F.I.F.A. outlaw the NSL. As a consequence, all NSL players would be banned from playing for any club outside the league, for their State and country. For life. Players who then stayed with NSL clubs would have their careers severely curtailed. Few are likely to put up with that "We will protect our interests. The question of control of the proposed new NSL leagues still is up in the air. It has become, if you like, a power struggle. Not so much for me, because I simply see if as a problem which rational men can solve. Nevertheless, if the NSL can't assure us that our interests have full protection then the problem never will be solved," said Cllauro.

Lous Tisigaris has had both his legs broken in separate soccer accidents.

He's back now, looking for a new club and hoping it doesn't happen again.

Meanwhile, Preston Makedonia striker Gary Ward, who has brokne his left leg twice, is out of action again with a fracture of his right leg.

It's not as serious as the pre-vious breaks however, and he ex-pected to be playing again in three weeks.

weeks. Tsigaris, 23, was given his chance late last year to establish inimelf finally as South Melbourne Hellas's No. 1 goalkeeper. The then coach, Tommy Docherty, decided that Peter Laumets wasn't playing well enough and that it was time to try Tsigaris.

that it was time to try Tsigaris.

"I gave it all I had," Tsigaris says. "Everything was coming out right for me but in my seventh successive match, I collided with David Lowe of Newcastle, and broke my left leg.

"The last time I'd had an extended run in the Hellas team was back in 1976, while Jack Relly, the No. I 'keeper, was away on national team duty. All the other years was in the reserves, on the bench, and then in Hellas's State League team."

and then in iterias a state team."

If has taken Tsigaris more than six months to get over the broken leg but he's been doing a lot of training lately, and is eager to get back into soccer.

It was about seven years ago that he suffered his first broken leg. "Luckily it was the other one the right one. I wouldn't have wanted to break the same leg twice," he says.

He's not keen to stay with Hellas now.

"I don't see much future for me there. They've not really treated me well. In fact I've heard nothing from the club in all the time that I've been away. You'd think some-one would try to find out how I was."

I've been away, 100 out how I was."

Tsigaris completed teachers' college last year and now is a qualified teacher, looking for a teaching job. He's working in the recreation office of Preston Technical College, organising activities and looking after the gym.

He's also coaching the Lalor under 12's.

Cubs interested in signing Tsigaris for next season can contact him at home on 488 8879.

Warming up essential

I want to dwell a moment on the importance of warming up before training and before a game.

I talk from experience, because I've been injured due to inadequate warming-up time.

First, let me say it is essential to exercise before training and playing in order to create the correct atmosphere in the organism. Some light jogging and half-hearted gymnastics will not pre-pare the body properly for the sudden sprints, turns, stops and other movements required.

These need specialised ex-ercises to bring the body to full functional preparedness. Muscles that are warm allow the blood to run through them more easily, and are less likely to be damaged when they suddenly have to increase their effort. There are two methods for gen-eral warming up — the athletic (running) and the gymnastic (stretching).

Either, or both, are essential if you want to avoid injuries — particularly in cold weather.

Gutendorf's triumph

What about Fiji's 2-0 victory over New Zealand? Last time they met — during the 1981 World Cup qualifying series — New Zealand won by a staggering 13-0!

So Fiji now is a 15-goal better side!

been pronounced as the latest quick-fix to get soccer's wagon back on the rails.

My, oh, my - how we forget . . . How we forget, for instance, that boredom with these so-called "local derbies" was one of reasons for triggering off the birth of the NSL

The philosophy in 1977 was that a championship with "interstate character" would produce the crowds. And it did — for awhile.

The argument now runs that when two local teams meet, the supporters of both will attend the match. But do they always?

We have made a brief study of the matter, taking the last pre-NSL season as a guide.

We reproduce here the 1976 and 1983 crowd figures for "local derbies" — with one big proviso: the announced crowds were then just as unreliable as they are now. The question that may arise is — when did the clubs fib better, then or now?

	 1983	19/6	T.
Apia v St George	 1500	4320	-2730
Sydney City v Marconi	 1284	1170	+ 114
Olympic v Sydney City	 6283	3114	+3170
Marconi v Olympic	 6432	3000	+1632
Sydney City v St George.	 . 2984	2681	+ 303
Olympic v St George	 4491	3560	+ 931
Sydney City v APIA	 1350	2536	-1186
Marconi v APIA	 7560	4625	+2935
APIA v Olympic	 . 6544	6611	- 67
Sydney City v Olympic	 6800	3220	+3580
St George v Sydney City.	. 2900	1500	+1400
Olympic v Marconi	 . 5467	5052	+ 415

Some interesting conclusions can be reached from these figures.

The attendances at local derbies in Sydney NSL matches went up by an average of 874 a game since 1976. If you remove ALL APIA figures, the average increase mps to 1443 a match!

So the 1976 State League was not all that it's cracked up to have been . . .

Clearly. APIA's crowd-collapse and Olympic's spec-tacular surge forward are the keys to this whole exercise.

With the exception of their match at Marconi — and most of the crowd was local-based, no doubt — APIA's ocal derby figures are down sharply on its 1976, pre-NSL

The forced change of name from APIA to Leichhardt, the terrible ground conditions and the team's fall from pre-eminence in the competition all have played their part in this decline.

Olympic, on the other hand, appears to have increased its crowds sharply — at times doubling them. With the sole exception of its away match at APIA.

Mirroni's local derby crowds were all higher in 1983 than in 1976 — and the same applies to Sydney City Haksuah and St. George Budapest, again the exception being their APIA clashes.

It could be the subject of another, fascinating study to find the reasons for the renewed interest of Greek fans and the disenchantment of the city-Italians — but the facts speak loudly enough.

There simply is no denying that professional or even semi-professional soccer would be impossible without the Greek fans — not just because they love the game but because they are so numerous.

What about the drawing power of Croatia Sydney, so often quoted as another savior of our soccer?

Taking its match figures of 1976 against Sydney's current NSL teams, Croatia drew an average of 2367 at home and 2632 away in its 10 matches. So there goes another myth

In case you doubt it, these are the breakdowns

Croatia v	Home	Away
St. George	2010	2201
Sydney City		1025
APIA	2000	3619
Olympic	562	3065
Marconi	1500	3250
Average:	. 2367	2632

All this doesn't necessarily prove that the proposal to split the NSL into groups, increase matches with pure local flavor and cut down on travel costs is not a progressive and probably worthwhile move.

But, I'm afraid, this partitioning on its own won't be ough to perform miracles.

The distilusioned Italian, Hungarian, Jewish and Croatian fans must be lured back — not with tricks and gimmicks but with attractive, skilful soccer competently refereed and staged in decent surroundings.

And that's much harder to achieve than changing the format of the NSL.

It was a wonderful year if you believed in miracles.

Marconi lose a six-point lead at the top of the table.

But pain for one team means ecstasy for another. It always has been like that. While West Adelaide Hellas wallows in the bottom half of the NSL, It is, I suppose, an opportune time to reflect on that golden season of 1978. Which began quite unspectacularly—one point from the first thre games including a 1-4 thrashing at home by St George Budapest.

Trouble was brewing within the club and after just two months John Margaritis decided West Adelaide had little potential and announced he would return to Melbourne to take charge of Heidelberg Alexander of the potential state of the charge of Heidelberg Alexander of the potential process of the potential process of the charge of Heidelberg Alexander of the potential process of the proce

War starts

In the opening five minutes, the teams collided without meeting. Both sides restrained themselves: merely testing the other. There would be no early goals.

But the ominous signs were there. City quickly slipped into its smooth-flowing well-organised game. West began nervously. Its passes went astray.

It seemed like an hour had passed, yet only 15 minutes had gone.

After 20 minutes of exquisite tension, McGregor grabbed the first scoring chance — a sizzling 25-metre shot, narrowly wide of the right-hand post.

Thirty exhilarating minutes had gone

But then the tension heightened again. Twice the game was stopped after players clashed. The first half ended —there were no goals.

City, which had looked ominously dan-erous in the last few minutes of the first alf, began to tighten its grip on the game. Jest's bench was quiet with concern.

A goal seemed imminent. It came in the 53rd minute. John Perin and John Besir stood over the ball 25 metres out to line-up a free kick.

Besir rolled the ball to Perin who took a short step and with one of his celebrated right-foot blasts powered it past Crook into the top left-hand corner. Adelaide City 1, West Adelaide 0.

The next 20 minutes were the worst of the match for West. Dpression had set in. As McGachey would say later: "We felt sick." The players' legs were moving like wheels with a piece chipped out of the rim.

West began the last 15 minutes with the conviction that if force had not prevailed, more force was the answer — considerably more force. West was now a new team. Its morale was high. With 10 minutes left its confidence was justified.

Vic Bozanic, who was moved from defence into a striking role for the second half, rose brilliantly to beat Marshall to a high crossfield ball and headed powerfully to the far post. It looked a certain goal. But the ball bounced inches wide. It was an agonising moment for Bozanic and West Adelaide.

Then John Nyskohus worked a clear run at West's goal which silenced the crowd. It had to be the second goal. Nyskohus shor from 15 metres and Crook swivelled his head to see the ball skip around the far over.

Word came through that Sydney City had beaten Olympic 2-8. Concerned West officials knew they needed a miracle. Bo-zanic provided it with three minutes left.

Byle sent a high cross a metre inside the penalty area. Bozanic accelerated towards it Marshall raced of his line to intercept. Bozanic got there first and with a deft flick lobbed it over Marshall's head and saw it bounce once and then over the line for an exhilirating goal.

The championship had come to Adelaide and all that was needed for the then Premier Don Dunstan to triumphantly lift the shield.

In the weeks that followed, critics tried to analyse the triump and find the reason why West succeeded.

The truth is there was no single reason, just 14 or 15 of them. Eery player, at one time or another, came to West's rescue during that season.

Norris, one of the most criticised players in the club during that year, scored some magnificent and vital goals and in the end he deserved as much credit as say Kambas, Crook or Boyle, the crowd favorite, or goal hero Bozanic.

And of course there was coach Jim Adam. The quiet Scot was apppointed two or three weeks after Margaritis returned to Melbourne.

McGachey was in control in the interim and then handed the reins over to Adam.

There were suggestions that McGachey as still calling the shots even after dam's appointment.

If he was, Adam never rocked the ship and that I suppose had as much to do with West's success as anything else.

PENRITH BEFORE SHARKS? OW DARE YOU, SIR!

David Jack, the super-sub for the Seasiders, played only his second full game of the season and proved once again to be a deadly marksman, scoring two goals to lift his side into the top four.

With only three rounds remaining, Manly now is fourth but has, played two games more than nearest rivals Sutherland and Kuringai.

On Sunday, both Sutherland and Kuringai failled to collect points, allowing Manly to breeze past, into the four Sutherland just lost to Croatia. Sutherland just lost to Croatia will decide the substantially by Melita and Croatia will decide the issue of the minor premiership with a goal and a point separating them at the moment. Both sides have conceded only 10 goals this year, but Croatia has scored 43 to Melita's 42. More importantly, Croatia has sore more point than its nearest rival and faces Melita, at King Tomislav Park, a decided advantage to Croatia.

Still, at Melita optimism is shared by most. In the last 12 matches the club has won loand drawn two Should Melita beat Croatia it would be hand or limagine that Polonia or limagine that Polonia or more point than or the more promisership.

By the same token, it must be said that Croatia would grab the minor premiership with a win or a draw Only Polonia and Yugal stand in the way of Croatia on the run to the finishing line.

Blacktown, still hopeful before last weekend now is resigned to the fact that the Minor premiership is going the session of the sestiled the way of Croatia and Melita and will have its sight firmly set on the top four competition.

Manly, Kuringai and Sutherland remain the most serious challengers for fourth spot with Sutherland still having the best chance. Polonia (twice), Yugal and Canterbury stand in the way of the Sharks, while Manly has to play Kuringai has the toughest draw, facing Inter Monaro.

Blacktown Demons chalked up their 15th win of the season in what most observers by now call "The Gabbie fashion".

After a scoreless first half, the Demons struck home soon after half time and in a devastating spell of thirteen minutes demolished the home side. It almost has become fashionable, as the Demons spend the first 45 minutes sizing up their opponent, then strike soon after the break.

Melita registered its 10th win in the last 12 matches to keep within an inch of toppling Croatia from the top of the lad-der.

The home team hardly extended itself in subduing the Chasers and always looked the better side Kuringai, needing at least a point from this match to remain in the race for the top four, fell back after 27 minutes, never to recover. Micky Cross employed Billy Griffith on the left flank and the clever midfielder ran to the bye-line before crossing Melita had to wait just as long for its second goal an error by a defender and Don atlan was on hand to pick up and hit a screamer from some 16 metres which Curtis had no chance of stopping.

Allan almost scored again in the 88th minute after a cross from Cross. However, his shot was deflected for a corner only a minute later Farnsworth ran through before find in the stopping of the penalty of t

Stuart hit the crossbar with a good shot. The rebound went to Terry Smith who cut it back for Jack to score.

Bankstown pulled one back after Geoghean deflected a cross from Augustino into his own net, but that was all this young side could do. Only one point away from Auburn at the bottom of the table is not comforting for the ailing Bankstown.

As for Manly, well, the side has ropes, mostly depending on the results of Sutherland against Polonia (twice), Yugal and Canterbury. Manly is con-fident of beating Kuringai and Inter Monaro in its remaining two matches.

Yugal 1 Avala 0

Yugal ended Avala's hopes of a place in top four with a slender win, thanks to a fine goal by Stanko Tanovski in the 65th minute. Radovan Jesic ran around the full back before crossing to the far post for Tanovski to head home and put Yugal into the lead.

the lead.

Jesic, who earlier had an opportunity to bent Ahrens was among the best for Yugal, while McIntosh and Forrester held strings at the back for the dark blues. Tanovski the scorer was certainly the best player on the park, while Munic and Housseini, the Avala stars, had an off day.

Housseini, who had the first chance of the match almost from the kick-off farely showed his ability. On the other hand, it was hard to understand why Deller and Fontana sat on the bench while Avala struggled.

Avala faces Canterbury, Bankstown and Kuringai in the last three rounds and the way the side is playing it is difficult to see it get on top to score the necessary points.

After a poor cisarance by Sutherland's defence. Hensman found himself with an extra forward against Scharleger A quick through ball and Hensman had only Haynes to beat which he did to perfection to score the winner. Creatia will now go into a game with Melita full of conidence and one would think that the home ground advantage might be sufficient to see Creatia take the title.

Sutherland with four sames.

Subterland, with four games to play, still has Manly and Ku-ringai to pass before getting into the top four. Manly faces Kuringai in one of its last matches and that could be just the tonic for Subterland, for it will be either one or the other side that will fall by the wayside, leaving the door open for the Sharks.

It is important to note that Sutherland has been a major part of the State League semi-finals for many years and as such a force to be reckoned with. Talks of Croatia, Melita

As most other clubs, the Sharks do depend on income through the turnstiles and have quite a large, predominantly soccer area which cries for top competition.

Polonia and Auburn con-tinue to struggle for goals and while in the home side might feel a little upset at losing one point to bottom-placed Auburn it would be unfair to say that Auburn should have been beat-en.

Despite this draw, Polonia looks fairly safe on 12 points and shouldn't have many problems in the remaining three rounds.

lems in the remaining three rounds.

For Auburn it was a day to celebrate despite its wasted chances.

Kinsey shot wide in the 12th, and the same player missed the ball with only Barker to beat in the 53rd, then Bobanic raced through to accept a pass from Kinsey before lobbing the keeper and the crossbar as well in the 56th for Auburn.

well in the 56th for Auburn.

Those were the most glaring opportunities for the visitors. Despite the misses, Auburn went home smiling as it's now obvious that its last-round match with Bankstown will most probably decide the wooden spoon and Auburn is definitely confident.

For Polonia it was Sobczyk who had the first opportunity only to see Bowman make a good save in the 33rd, then Johnstone cleared off the line on the stroke of half time to keep Auburn alive.

That apart, Polonia offered little and must strengthen the side for the next year's pre-miership if it hopes to do well.

Beaten 4-0 by Hellas last weekend, league leader Makedonia faces probably its toughest match of the season when it goes to Canberra on Sunday without Claude Lucchesi, Garry Ward and George McMillan.

Ward and George Michielan.

Lucchesi and Ward have scored nine goals each so far. Ward is out injured for three weeks and Lucchesi is off to the U.S. on a business trip.

McMillam, the team captain, is suspended for the second time this season, after being sent off during last Sunday's match. Player-coach Peter Ollerton will came into the team to replace one of the strikers. The other probably will be Alex Livingstone who has been on the bench or in the reserves since joining Makedonia from Scotland.

If Makedonia fails to beat Canberra, it is almost certain that Sydney City Hakoah will take over at the top of the ladder. Hakoah, with Joe Watson having recovered from the flu, and lan Souness back at his best after his honeymoon, meets West Adelaide Hellas at the Sydney Athletic Field.

Hakoah's record against West Adelaide certainly points to another victory. In 12 clashes between the two sides, Hakoah has won 10 and drawn one.

Third-placed Newcastle, now only four points from the lead and in a mean mood after having beaten Canberra 5-0, appears to be back at its best, and knows it cannot afford to lose to Marconi at Marconi Stadium If it hopes to maintain its challenge for the Inchience of the Canberra of the the championship.

In fact, Newcastle would go to the top of the ladder if both Makedonia and Hakoah lose.

Channel Os: "Match of the Day" cameras will be at the Olympic Village where Heidelberg-Alexander takes on St George Budapest which aims to finish at least in the top four, as it is possible that the top four series will be revived this season.

Heidelberg's run of outs ended when it drew with Footscray J. U.S. T., and I think the match against St George will result in a continuous control of the property of the pro out because work commitments had prevented him from training.

A highlight of the match will be the duel between Wollongong's No. I player. Phil O'Connor, and whoever marks him — probably Saleiman Curovic.

No. I player. Phil U Connor, and whoever that as him.

Suleiman Curovic.

Sydney Olympic dropped out of the title race when it lost to St George last weekend, but it still aims to compete in the top four series, if it is revived, and so it will be determined to beat Brisbane City at home, even though Brisbane City has held the upper hand over Olympic in past matches.

Marshall Soper will be back after serving a suspension, and he's eager to win "Soccer Action's" $1000 top scorer's award.

APIA-Leichhardt, another contender for the top four, has the misfortune of running into Brisbane Lions, who seem to have a new lease of life, despite a couple of unfortunate developments never the past week.

new lease of life, despite a couple of unfortunate developments over the past week.

Star defender Alan Hunter is out for the rest of the year due to injury, and coach Sirono Kistemaker has announced he will quit the club and return to Europe at the end of the season because he does not want to continue "lowering his standards."

But Danny Wright, the Stewart brothers, Alan Niven and Bobby McSkimming are in fine form for Lions and should give APIA a tough game.

headed just over the bar from a cross by John Bradley, but that apart, it was one hell of a physical tussle that rarely produced any reason to citement.

Tony Pezzano dived at Morsello's feet just after the restart, then Parks made a good save from Barnes after some 63 minutes. Willie Murray was foiled in the 77th minute after a good break by Hakoah then a shot by Kosmina was deflected for a corner close to the end.

Bertogna and Mariani for APIA and Robertson for APIA and Robertson for hakoah were the most prominent players on the day.

But what about Peter Sharne or Ian Souness, Tony Morsello and Gerardo Gomez, John Kosmina and Jim Cant, Joe Watson and Murray Barness, Terry Butler or John Bradley — players who should by name or form produce the goods to entertain this 4,000 strong crowd hungry for good football — entertaining, not oppressing.

oppressing.
Sharne was disappointing once again at Lambert Park.
He hardly touched the ball and rarely attempted to beat his opponent. One would hope that with time the old Fairfield Bullet will improve.

Souness, regarded by most as one of the finest midfielders in the country, was a fullback. His usual attacking flair was missing. He was beaten on numerous occasions during the first 45 minutes after a simple 1-2, and it was obvious to althat this fine player should be in the midfield.

Adelaide City, meanwhile, jumped above its locals rival after only its second win in the past 11 matches.

Co-incidentally, both sides went into this match with just one win in 10 matches — both against Brisbane Lions.

Adelaide City was clearly pleased with its success while West Adelaide, which this week celebrates the fifth anni-versary of its NSL success by playing Sydney City, gave every impression it has aban-doned all hope for 1983.

Its immediate aim will now be to avoid "relegation", a task which should not be all that difficult if it can boost its striking power

With Paul Wormley gone, the bulk of the responsibility has fallen on the shoulders of Graham Honeyman and Graham Heys, who really do need the support of an ex-perienced third striker to break down defences.

George Calandaris simply was not up to it and coach Alan Vest was forced to replace the young forward with Ian McGregor late in the second West also has some major deficiencies in the midfield, a chronic problem which has not been helped with a three-week club ban of Mick Brennan who returns this weekend.

City did not have a weak link in the second half and its two goals were quite spectacular.

First Joe Mullen fired a super shot from a tight angle after twisting and turning near the byline, and in the 85th minute Villani swept a powerful shot past Gary Sproul, who again was preferred to Martyn Crook.

Everything looked stacked against Lions.
But the critics didn't count on the fighting strength of those Lions players.
Former St George youngster Brett Beves came in as a replacement for keeper Lownds and although hardly pressured, did nothing wrong and could hold the place for several weeks.
But the trump card proved to be former Heidelberg player Rob Vincent, who has been sidelined for the past month with a severe hamstring injury.
Kistemaker was determined to get Vincent on the park and trained him twice daily in the week leading up to the derby. The extra work paid off and Vincent was a lower of strength in the stopper's position.

Heidelberg put the brakes on its slide down the table with an improved perform-ance and may consider itself unlucky not to have come out of this game with the three points.

With most of the drive coming from central defend-ers Charlie Yankos and Don Macleod, the side took control in the second half after holding out against the swirting wind in the opening 45 minutes.

The Bergers hit the bar twice through Yankos and Theo Selemidis, while Macl-eod came within centimetres of connecting with a Yankos freekick to head into the net.

Yankos returned to his authorative best at sweeper to give new keeper Spire Kardamitsis much-needed reasurance and also made a number of incisive forward runs, capping his day with the shot of the match—a scorphing drive from 30 metres which Dennis Boland did well to palm onto the bar and away for a corner after 78 minutes.

The save compensated for some of Boland's earlier unsure handling which put JUST in all sorts of bother.

The experienced keeper seemed unusually suspect on cross balls and created danger for his side in three cornerkick situations.

Defenders managed to clear two of them while the frame-work came to his rescue in the other case, stopping a Theo Selemidis header after Jim Campbell's corner in the 65th

The one time he managed to get the ball in the net, connecting with a Vlatko Belic cross in the 69th minute, the goal was disallowed for offside.

J.U.S.T. coach Bobby McLachlan admitted a number of his players made "unchara-tistic mistakes, giving away simple balls" after working hard to win them in the first place — but he was quite happy with the draw.

"A draw is better for us than it was for them. The standard was not the best but there was a lot of tension, with both teams attaching a lot of importance to the game," he said.

The two coaches' dis-putation was triggered by Docherty's continuous criti-cism of Arok's methods and the performance of his team, virtually since the season's start.

Now, however, the Doc should run up the white flag. After all, Arok's boys have bested his bunch in both their NSL clashes this year. Mind you, Olympic is still one of a large bunch of aspirants for a top-three spot, but cool self-analysis would serve to the final nine rounds of play.

The Saints' three points were grabbed by elegant youngster Peter Petkovski in the 60th minute.

In an action-packed encounter, the score could quite easily have been much higher, with both teams missing six good chances, five of them in an incredible four-minutes. Two of the Budapest nearnisses were saved off the line by Herbert and Phillips.

A jubilant Arok was too busy savoring his triumph over Docherty to contemplate what lies ahead, but he has a number of options.

It meant that when a Makedonia player did manage to get the ball, most of the others weren't in positions to accept a pass. The easiest way out, therefore, was to boot the ball up the field, hoping Claude Lucchesi may get to it ahead of two or three defenders.

Now Hellas is eyeing top place. Its first-half perform-ance against Makedonia was quite brilliant, and its second half extremely professional.

Hellas remains eight points from the top, but mathemati-cally it still can win the title, as no team in the league is playing better soccer.

It was a triumphant return to Connor Reserve for Hellas striker Doug Brown, who scored the only two regular goals of the match.

Ljube Petrovski, who came into the side after a long absence, got the job of marking Brown, and Con Opasinis marked Charlie Egan, the other Hellas striker.

David Jones picked up Steve Wooddin, who was in the team in place of suspended Steve Wooddin, who was in the team in place of suspended Steve Blair, but because Wooddin played on the left wing, Jones found himself playing at right back, with Petrovski and Opasinis occupying the centreback positions.

After Petrovski had deflected a shot by Wooddin into the net for an own goal, and Branks Bulgivich had come on to replace Wooddin who was limping. Makedonia saw the light and reorganised its defence.

Jones returned to his accus-tomed central position, mark-ing Brown, while Petrovski went wide to pick up Buljevic. New format of no benefit more people will follow soccer after they have given the game away.

I have for years claimed that we will never succeed in creating more supporters but will lose them if we continue with the 5-5‡ months to do something else with their weekend. The break in soccer in other parts of the world is a maximum 3-3‡ months to do something else with their weekend. The break in soccer in other parts of the world is a maximum 3-3‡ months, which in my opinion is the best way of keeping supporters interested in the game. I see therefore the best solution to solve the present mess is to ask or insist on the present National League clubs on the solution of the state League, which is mee State League, which is mice state League of the clubs with the state week in 1975 and for min-mediately for season 1894 as State League of 18 clubs with the season running from the third week in February until the first week in November, which would give us 38 weekends to play 34 games. Also, increase immediately the number of clubs in each division and in junior soccer and for once we can promote soccer on the same basis as it is done in other countries.

There would be enough weekends left to play some clup competitions and semifinals and finals.

Soccer in Australia will never succeed by making a small number of clubs stronger at the expense of other clubs.

It would be fair if NSL chairman Sam Papasavas admitted that the National League, which I fought against for ten years before it was formed, has been a failure. people who follow a code have played this sport at one time in their life, therefore the more juniors who play soccer, the more people will follow soccer after they have given the game

It has been a failure mainly because expenses involved are too great, which is the main reason it has to be changed and split into two divisions—hardly a National League any-when it actually means is what it actually means that we would have a league in Victoria a consisting of eight clubs from Victoria and victoria and could consist the country of the count ciubs.

Il escapes me how two clubs from Queensland or from Queensland or from Canberra and South Australia how possibly could compete with the eight clubs from Victoria.

The Victorian clubs would travel only four times interstate a year, while the two clubs from either of the other three States would have to travel intersiste ten times a season.

Season.

Their expenses would hardly be reduced and would be much higher than for the Victorian che did not be a season of the land to be a season of the land to be a season of the land to be a season of playing ten games in their work of playing ten games without supporters.

I am convinced these clubs would not be able to continue doing so as they soon would find themselves at the bottom of the league and my forecast is that within two years we would be back to a league of 12 Victorian clubs, as the situation was in 1875 before the National League was formed.

I see the whole scheme as a and for the people was formed and the season of the league and my formed to the people was a season of the league and the state League Management Committee and by the Victorian Board of Management Committee and by the Victorian Board of Management (I certainly is not in the interest of soccer and the State League and only serves the present National League clubs and four clubs of the State League.

I consider the attendance figures given in "Soccer Action" of 10th August, 1983, as a joke. I am of the opinion that if the six clubs which are mentioned as candidates for the new league would open their books, the following attendance figures would prove to be careful to the six clubs which are mentioned as candidates for the new league would open their books, the following attendance figures would prove to be cessive. Croydon to NSL with new ground? Victorian State League club Croydon joined the race for places in the 1984 NSL last week and, if it geins NSL status, will move to new headquarters at Dorset Park, Croydon team manager and secretary, Laurie Cooper, says that only two new players would be needed if the club gains entry to the NSL.

"We bought Steve Irvine, Joe Sweeney, Gus Macleod and Steve Marley this year as part of our push for the NSL. They weren't stop-gap signings. They all can be good NSL performers," said

"At most we'd only need another defender and a midfielder to go into the NSL with a very strong soccer in Melbourne's eastern suburbs. Cooper understands that the NSL and VSF will reach agreement on fixtures, enabling the Melbourne-based NSL clubs to be the only major outfits com-peting on their particular match day, either a Sat-urday or Sunday.

Croydon's turnover this year will be just over $250,000. It already is run as a small business and feels that it wouldn't have to drastically revamp its administration to cope with the rigors of running an NSL club.

Green Gully Ajax should be the first Victorian State League club considered for a place in the 1984 NSL according to Croydon City striker Gus Macleod.

"Gully's record says it all. I can't understand all this talk about putting in clubs with bigger crowds. You've got to keep the standard of the NSI. High. Even raise it if possible," said Macleod
"You don't automatically improve attendances by simply putting new Croatian, Maltese, Italian or Polish clubs in the NSI. People have to watch a good standard game.

"And that's why I'm dead against the ASF move to cut down on imports. Okay, I understand that this move is meant to try and promote young, local players but to be honest, I don't see many of them coming through the ranks.

"You have to do your home work properly when you bring a player over here. If you're going to bring out someone in his late 20's then he's got to be of First Division standard in his own country. You need players who cancontribute, guys like Joe Sweeney at Croydon and Gary McDowell a Footscray and my brother Don at Heidelberz, was involved in fixing these guys up to come over here from Scotland and they've shown that they they've gos a good football to offer this country.

Macleod joined Green Gully Ajax in 1981 and was leading State League scorer that year. In his native Scotlands he played with Albion Rovers, St. Mirren, Hamilton Academi-cals, Berwick Rangers, Pollok and Petershill. Hamilton Accies bought him from St.

Mirren in 1974 for $24,000, well remembering the live goals he remembering the live goals he remembering the live goals he sold for Salitts against Cup tie, a record which still stands. At Pollok, Macleod scored 54 goals in his first season, a club record.

Macleod continued his scoring exploits with Ajax last year but his inability to come to terms with the club over the signing of a new contract for this year saw him set to switch to Croydon. Until Footscray J U.S.T. stepped in and signed him Armold Langer, the Ajax reasurer, wouldn't budge when we were talking terms tate last year. Net ther would 1. I'm not scared of him the way some players are at Ajax. He told me that if another club offered me more than the terms he offered he's gladly match their offer. Well, I trebled the money he offered me when I joined J.U.S.T. and later Croydon this year and I'm still waiting on Armold Langer to send me a cheque matching their terms.

"Don't get me wrong."

Macleed played for J.U.S.T. earlier this season against opponents of the calibre of Sydney City Hakoah, Sydney City Hakoah, Sydney Clympic, Marconi, South Melbourne Hellas and Preston Makedonia, so he's seen at first hand, what's required to make the Jump from State League to the NSL.

"Juventus certainly needs new players, even though I think they'll win State League this season. They really impressed me when they thumpressed me. Vince Bannon and Harry Hird. I'd never seen them play so aggressively." Macleod's move from JU.S.T. to Croydon earlier his year was through his own choosing. The JU.S.T. companities was through his continued in the stay. Some fans had different ideas. "JU.S.T. was rebuilding under Bobby McLachlan when I joined. The style of game we played didn't suit me, even though Bobby didn't have much option. He had to be defensive. I was putting in a lot of hard work out on the field but the fans didn't like me. Everyone knew that me and Bobby were close friends and at the time, he was clearing out a few players who were favores with the suit of the suit o

McArthur reacted to Mac-eod's gesture by throwing a bucket of water over him.

"Bill McArthur was inter-yiewed on radio on the morn-ing of the match and asked his impressions about an up and coming striker called Gus Macleed Bill said that you couldn't call a 30 year old up and coming. When I scored, I just wanted to remind him of and coming. When I scored, I just wanted to remind him of his comments. But we had a ago.

"Bill wasn't prepared to take a cut in his wages and he was quite right in principle. I thought that a solution could have been worked out between Bill and the committee but that wasn't to be. The new

"I'll review my situation at the end of the year, I've already had a couple of offers from other clubs to take up a player-coaching position next year. Macleod says that Croydon definitely will finish the season in fourth spot in State League and will be admitted to the NSL next year. He's got the only Croydon player with NSL experience. Low Kastner, Mike Rainey and Jimmy Rooney are others. Right now Macleod is con-centrating on playing his part in what he hopes will be a suc-cessful Dockerty Cup run for Croydon.

My proposal is therefore based on giving every club in Victoria and as such in Australia an equal chance to create the largest number of supporters and not favor the small number of clubs that strength-ent clubs. The threat of a breakaway may have influenced the decisions taken. Call their bluff. Make it well known that players who would play for the breakaway club would break FIFA rules and would be suspended and blacklisted, would never represent Australia and never represent Australia and bozzetta and Weinstein are—but I'm not sure of the other.

But few are equipped to serve on a World Cup sub-com-

Tony Labbozzetta, a former player himself, follows international soccer at least as keenly as any soccer fan. He has that precious commodity — knowledge — which has been accumulated through numerous overseas trips to watch and absorb soccer at international level.

This is the type of knowledge that is a prerequisite to shape our World Cup plans—and this is the commodity on the committee.

Brian Emery and Peter Shean And Peter Sheean have to be included, almost automatically (why not kamasz, then? — but I am not convinced of the qualifications of some of the others.

What does it matter — I hear you say — who is on this committee? We'll never win the World Cup anyway.

Too true. But we could be planning better our international commitments — and planning them further ahead—than we are now.

The soon-to-be-aborted international tournament scheduled for November is a glaring example of our muddling.

For some six or seven months we hear about this event — for which even the NSL semi-finals were dropped—only to find out that it's likely to be called off.

What will take its place?

Possibly a "our" by Uruguay—and we know how risky these end-of-season tours are especially if the visitors don't deliver the goods in the first match, just like England last May.

Then we will play in the Merion tournament in Singapore which, this time around, also will include Saudi Arabia. New Zealand and the USA.
This hardly will satisfy West Nally whose main interest is in internationals in Australia, not overseas.

It's very difficult not to sympathise with national coach Les Scheinflug whose poly to the 1988 World Cup climination matches — with such shoddy planning done above his head.

If he succeeds — the World Cup sub-committee congratulates itself. If we fail, Scheinflug follows Shoulder and Gatendorf into oblivion. Other, better-organised nations — those unreliable foreigners — plan their World Cup campaign three years ahead.

Ajax too tough, Croatia under threat

The biggest State League crowd of the that's what Sunshine-George Cross officials are predicting for Sunday's Maltese derby at Chaplin Reserve against Green Gully Ajax.

The stakes are high for both camps. A win for Ajax would make it odds-on to clinch a third successive championship as closest rival Croatia faces a danger game on the same day against Croydon at Croydon Park.

A win to the combine would add weight to its bid for inclusion in the 1984 NSL.

Aside from individual and team ablity, what greatly impresses me about Ajax is its physical strength all over the park. Peter Lewis, Stuart Cannell, Peter Boyle, Williams certainly know how to look after themselves As a few Juventus players found out last weekend. When contests deteriorate into hard, slogging affairs there only can be one result if Ajax is involved. Sunshine-George Cross has enhanced the physical qualities of its side by signing Alain Kerr, Gerry Bennett and Jim O'Reilly this season, however Ican't see the combine coming out on top on Sunday 1 expect Ajax to win.

If Lewis decides to stay here, then his talents deserve plaudits from a far larger audience. He must play in the NSL.

The Doves were forced to play with 10 men for 80 minutes when former Frank-ston City midfielder Bill Buchanan was sent off after a clash with Bruno Cozzellas in the 35th minute. The score at the time was 2-1 to Doveton.

The Doves regained the lead in the 32nd minute after a millar shot struck the post. Mark Lennon was on hand to tuck away the rebound. The referee either ignored or didn't see the linesman's lag during the move which led to Lennon's goal.

A similar incident took place during the move leading to Fawkner's decisive third goal, but let's get back to the equaliser.

It came in the 75th minute from the head of Bruno Sabidussi after a fine Joe Palinkas' cross.

Doveton players complained that the last Fawkner player to touch the ball before it went into goal to make it 3-2, handled. Again the linesman's flag went up. Again, it went unheeded, and the ensuing shot deflected off Millar and past Sean Keogh.

Bill Panas took over in Faw-kner's goal as Rob Terzini had flu, however, the accom-plished Terzini is expected to return this week.

Croydon clearly was the better side here and established the credibility of its top four claim. It also probably onded any real hope Polonia had of taking part in this year's State League Cup.
Croydon was leading 2-0 when Brendan Lakic hammered his penalty try way over the bar and Polonia's goal came from a bad back pass by Mike Rainey. Tadik Krysinski latched onto the ball and squared to Alex Marshall who made it 2-1.

Big Marshall missed a sitter just before half time when he miskicked from right in front but Croydon had created three good chances earlier but failed to convert. A few minutes before Marshall's glaring miss, Joe Sweeney had a free header at the back post which brought out a great save from Polonia player-coach Leszek Dzielakowski. The former Polish First Division keeper collided early with Gus Macl-eod and complained of sore ribs throughout the game.

Croydon took the lead in the 56th minute after Dziela-kowski misjudged a corner and Sweeney shot truly at the far post

Four minutes later it was 2-0. Dzielakowski got a hand to a tremendous Peter Lough-

Although Marshall reduced the arrears a couple of minutes later, Polonia was a beaten side.

Three league games stand in the way of Pines and the First Division Frankston

The progressive Pines have drawn their past four matches. Significantly, the team has conceded just one goal in this time, an example of the defensive discipline of the side under coach Danny McMinimee.

McMinimee's problems centre upon his lack of striking ability. He selected new German signing Kurt Bohl against Western Suburbs last weekend and although the match ended in a 0-0 draw, Bohl did enough to suggest that as his match fitness improves, so will his contribution to Plnes' cause.

Juventus 7-0

Juventus-Pioneer retained the lead in Tasmania's State League when it thrashed White Eagles 7-0 at Grove Road on Friday night. Bruce Ward and John Broadhouse both hit hat-tricks for the Italian side while Carlo Ambrosino got the remaining goal.

Croatia-Glenorchy dropped down one place to fourth position when it lost 1-4 to Olympic, for whom Craig Nichols scored a hat-trick. Olympic was by far the superior team and might have won by an even bigger margin but for some amazing missed chances.

Peter Sherman scored the Greek side's fourth goal in the final minute with a stunning 70-meter free kick that went in off the bar, only seconds after Kirkpatrick had scored Croatia's lone goal from a similar free kick.

Rapid stayed in touch with Juventue by beating Metro-Claremont at South Hobart on Sunday. The champion's 1-0 win over Metro keeps it just one point behind the leader with three metches remaining. Thompson scored the winner in the 18th minute.

Questo dover negare l'esistenza del sole ha costretto

I due terzini laterali, costretti a giocar largo dalla schieramento del Green Gully hanno fatto altrettanto brutta figura quando cercavano di tamponare i buchi al centro. Il rilsultato e' stato che il capocannoniere della lega, e non non sconosciuto qualsiasi, e' stato lasciato completamente solo e con tanto spazio da vendere. Anche dopo laprima rete segnata dallo smarcato Paul Lewis lo schieramento difensivo bianconero non e' cambiato affatto con la squadra protesa disperatamente in avanti con quattro attaccanti e tre centrocampisti ed i tre sparuti difensori sono stati nuovamente infilati verso la meta del secondo tempo dopo un forcing della Juventus che avrebbe dovuto ottenere il pareggio se Zinni non avesse incredibilmente mancato con un tiro di testa da distanza ravvicinata e a porta vuota e con vicinata e a porta vuota e con un tiro a volo sbucciato dall'in-terno dell'area pochi minuti dopo. Ma era nuovamente la Juventus a buttarsi all'arrembaggio verso il fine partita per segnare la rete della bandiera con Zinni al 43° e quindi mancare un'altra rete per sfortuna e precipitazione: Incantalupo copibus l'incrocio del pali errosamente calciando il rimbalio alle stelle di fronte alla porta vuota.

Con il senno di poi e 'facile dire che con Drinockzy al centro della difesa arroccata come in tante partite ed in modo speciale quella d'andata contro il Croatia, il risultato di domenica sarebbe stato diverso. Sono solo supposizioni che rimarranno senza una risposta almeno per ora, perche' le due squadre dovranno riaffrontarsi nuovamente nella competizione "top four" di fine campionato ed un ritorno ad uno schieramento piu' ortodosso darebbe alla Juventus la possibilita' di una rivincita.

Bella sorpresa quella della vittoria del Fawkner sul diffi-cile campo del Doveton, Final-mente senza patimi d'animo per fare piu' di quanto era umanamente possibile; il Faw-kner sta giocando con quella tranquillita' che le permette di esprimere la qualita' della sua giovane formazione e di sfrui-

Malta on the way up

By PHILIP MICALLEF

Malta must rank with the least classy soccer nations in the world but there can be few more passionate followers of the game than the Maltese.

But whereas Mediterranean giants like Italy, Spain, France and Greece can boast of a healthy — if not glorious — Tradition, Malta, unfortunate-ly, has never been able to erase its image of a 'soccer minnow'.

erase its image. The smallness of the island and its dry climate which makes grassy pitches hard to maintain, account for the delay in the game's development in the soccer-mad opment in the social country.

The Maltese fell in love with the game upon the arrival of the first British troops in the last century.

As more and more Maltese became 'hooked' on the game, the first clubs were formed and subsequent clashes between local teams and British service sides drew thousands of fans.

With the advent of TV in the championship, then known as the Nations' Cup.

Malta's leading clubs also have been participating in the three European club tournaments for nearly 20 years.
Results, understandably, have generally been poor—sometimes disastrous.
There were the occasional exploits, like the 2-0 defeat of Greece in the 1976 European championship and the 0-0 draw with West Germany four years later in the same competition. But these results—and some others at club level—were mainly attributed to the hard and sandy playing surface of the Empire Stadium and not to the gallant effort of the plucky part-timers.

It was becoming, in a way, a no-win situation as bitter controversies arose in the country as to whether a small island like Malta should be allowed to 'mix it' with the professionals from abroad.

So when a brand new sta-dium, with a grass pitche, was built by the government in 1981 in the rural district of Tagali observers were hoping for an overdue improvement in the local standard.

The 35,000 capacity stadium is used for Premier League matches and for international games

But the construction of the grass pitch stadium has not solved Malta's problems, according to national coach Victor Scerri.

"Playing on grass at the weekend has not led to better football in the championship." Scerri pointed out.
"Because our players still are training on hard ground during the week."

But the new stodium has at least saved Malta the embarassment of hosting world class players on a rocky surface which had become joke of the world football. The property will alway the playing surface which had become to care the playing surface which had become to care the playing surface which had become to care the playing surface which was canaged by a rare torrential downpour.

This year Malta was somewhat unlucky to lose two home European championship matches in the qualifying Group Seven.

A last-minute fluke goal by Manchester United striker Frank Stapleton gave Eire a 1-0 win while Spain had to fight all the way to turn a 1-2 deficit into a narrow 3-2 win which put them at the top of the table.

"A few years ago we managed to obtain the odd result by playing in defence," Scerri said.

"Today I'm happy to say we are trying to play the game.

"And with a bit of luck we could have beaten the Irish and especially the Spaniards.

Scerri, 14, has been at the helm of the Maltese national team for seven years.

Scerri was a top goalkeeper with Melita and Stlema in his playing days.

He also was picked in several representative matches against touring sides.

BODOVI VAZNIJI OD IGRE

BODOVI VAZNIJI OD IGRE

J.U.S.T. i Alexander su podelili bodove posle slabe igre, jer se mnogo kalkulisalo. "Plavi" su opet nastupili oslabljeni bez Zdravka Lujica u navali i kapitena igora Hazabenta u odbrani. Primetno je bilo da ni ostali igraci nisu bili u formi zbog cega "plavi" moraju biti zadovoljni postignutim rezultatom. Iz sedam zadnjih susreta JUST je isasao nepobedjen, sto je svakako veliki uspeh koji ne sme da uspava. Međjutim, u plavom taboru oseca se izvestan zamor sto je posledica dosadsnjih napora da se izadje iz krize. Potrebna je nova pobeda da se povrati samopouzdanje. Nesreca je sto plavi ne mogu nikako da nastupe u najboljem sastavu zbog cega trpi igra. Joe Catro sa koljim se idealno slaze. Mjihova posleda kostavu zbog cega trpi igra. Joe Catro sa koljim se idealno slaze. Mjihova ja jave" masine. Ovog puta Justikim uspedom, jer umalo sto nije doneo pobedu JUSTu. Odbrana je imala nekoliko propusta, koji su velikim uspedom, jer umalo sto nije doneo pobedu JUSTu. Odbrana je imala nekoliko propusta, koji se neocekivano nasao pri dnu tabele.

Sledece nedelje JUST igra na svom igralistu protiv Wollongonga, koji je poslednji na tabeli. To ne zaaci mnogo ako se protivnik potceni, sto JUST nece uraditi zbog svoje publike koja se povratila u ogramnom broju. Na nepristupacnom igralistu Heidelberga bilo je vise Jugovica nego Grka, sto je bilo primetno. Ukoliko JUST nastavi sa uspesima poseta ce biti sve veca, jer nastaju lepsi dani.

Specijalnu pohvalu za dobru igru protiv Heidelberga zboravit danice ne pruzaju onaliko koliko mogu i koliko se od njih ocekuje. Vitako Belic tigleta kao da je izgubljen, a Suli Curovic je prevose zaljubljetu loptu. Dobro je uzima, ali tesko se oslobodaj li kasno. To su greske mladost, koje se lako mogu otklonit.

VISOK PORAZ MAKEDONIJE

Pred ovogodisnjom rekordonom posetom na svom igralistu, Makedoni-ja je pretrpela najtezi poraz u ovoj sezoni, ali je ipak sacuvala prvo mesto. Resultat ne odgovara igri, koja je bila neobicno gruba. Slucaj i sreca su pomogli Helasu da ostvari visoku pobedu. Prva i najveca zrtva grube igr bio je Zarko Odzakov, dok su ostali igraci Makedonije dozvolili da ih protivnik isprovocira. Sudija je ocijedeno bio n strani Helasa, a narocito u dodeljivanju zutih kartona. George McMillan je zabitnema u guzvi. Pored toga sanse Makedonije su bile zrelije od protivnickih. Pored dva autogola odbrana Makedonije je napravila dva pocetnicka kiksa, koja je Doug Brown majstorski iskoristio Ukratko, bio je to nesrecan dan za Makedoniju, sto se događaja svakom klubu. Prvenstvo nije izgubljeno, jedino je trka za naslob prvaka postala interesantnija. U nedelju 28. avgusta Makedonija gostuje u Kanberi, gde moze nadoknaditi ono sto je izgublja protiv sretnog Melasa.

AJAX PO TRECI PUT SAMPION VIKTORIJE?

Posle ubedljive pobede nad Juventusom sa 3:1, Ajax je prakticno osvojio po treci put uzastopce naslov prvaka Viktorije, sto ce mu sigurno otvoriti vrata u Nacionalnu ligu bez obzira kako bude ona iz, gledala iduce godine. Croatia ce morati da se zado-voji) sa drugim mestom, sto je daleko do njene am-bicije, iako ne treba gubiti nadu na prvo mesto, jer je ostalo jos pet kola do kraja prvenstva. Zbog toga je nuzna pobeda na uvek neugodnom igralistu Croydon Citya. Céda Cirkovic potajno se nada cetvrtom mestu, iadko je juris kasao zapoceo. Eventualni poraz Croydon Citya i pobeda nad Polonijom u Fawkneru pretvorice san u javu.

ALTONA GATE VAN OPASNE ZONE

ALTONA GATE VAN OPASNE ZONE

Altona Gate/VARDAR je u gostima pobedio Werribees sa 1:0 (-0), sto ga je na vreme izvuklo iz opasne zone. Pobeda je morala biti imogo veca, ali zbog vazmosti utakmice igraci Vardara su bili nervozmi pa su mnoge idealne sanse otisle u nepovrat. Pobedonosni gol postigao je u 80. minutu. Sastav Vardara: Dimitrijevski, Trajkovski, Dervisovski, Serovski, Kotevski, Dimovski, Ovanovski (cele Talevski) Micevski, Beljer, Bozinovski, Ristovski (Lube Talevski). U nedelju
29. avgusta Vardar igra na svom igralistu protivFrankston Pinesa.

RINGWOOD/SRBIJA PRED VRATIMA

PRVE DIVIZIJE
Ringwood/SRBIJA je srecno pobedila oslabljeni drugi tim Makedonije sa 1:0 (0:0) u gostima. U hud-balu je potrebna i sreca, pa ce ovom prilikom pomoci Ringwood/Srbiji da 20, godisnji jubile jkrunise sa pre-laskom u prvu diviziju, sto niko nije oceklvao na po-ceklu sezone Sa ovom pobedom FK Srbija je izbila na trece mesto druge divizije, sto je dovoljno, ako ga sacuva, da predje u stariji razred. U predigir rezerva Makedonije pobedila je goste sa 3:1 (2:1). Strelci: Vasko Jankulovski 21 veselin Soklevski, U subotu 27. avgusta RIngwood/Srbija igra na svom igralistu potiv Springvale Citya, dok drugi tim Makedonije gostuje u Dandenongu.

protiv Springvale Citya, dok drugi tim Makedonije; gostuje u Dandenongu.

Drugi tim JUSTa je u svakom pogledu nadigrao Waverley City, ali je morao da se zadovolji sa neresenim rezultatom bez galova. "Plavi" romanticari imaju najbolji tim u drugoj divistji, ali se nalaze u donjem delu tabele zbog jalove navale, koja je ovog puta bila stvarno nesrecna, jer je golman gostiju branio izvanredno. JUSTov sastva: P. Hrehoresin, S. Stojevski, M. Oblak, N. Rajic, Z. Krnic, P. Krnic (E. Petrov), P. Simic, A. Reigosa, T. Clyworth, T. Karic, C. Velevski. U predigri je rezerva "plavih" posle izvarnedne igre savladda jakog protivnika sa 2:0 (1:0). Streici: Jim Fernander i George Brown. U prvoj predigri juniori JUST a ispod 16 godina visoko su porazlii Altonu Gate/Cardar sa 721 (4:0). PRVA PROVIZIONALNA DIVIZIJA

LANGWARRIN — HAWKSBURN 1:0 (0:0). Hawk-sburn je nastupio bez dva iskusna veterana Steve Bleskanja i Joe Saba, sto je uticalo na rezultat. Vero-vatno bi se utakmica zavrsila bez golova da je sudija zastitio golmana Sandota Kazia, koje je minut pre primljenog bio zrtva grubog nastraja. Najbolji igraci: Istvan Laslo, Stjepan Kanton i Steve Derek U pre-digri rezerva Hawksburna pobedila je domaci tim sa 3:2 (2:2). Streici: George Antal 2 i Laci Palo. Najbolji igraci Laci Palo, Jani Palo i Slavko Drilic.

LALOR/SLOGA — CHELSEA 3:0 (1:0). Strelci:
Bale Petrevski, Tome Tasevski i Viktor. Sloga je potpuno nadigrala borgenog protivnika, ali navala nije iskoristila brojne sanse. Pogresno smo objavili u prosfom izvestaju da je Ljuba Stojanovic postigao dva gola za Slogu protiv Mladosti. Ljuba Stojanovic gola 2a slogu posty macoshi. Pjana skojanovi re dobro igrao tom prilikom, ali golove za Slogu postigli su Tome Tasevski 2 i Ljubce Kotevski. Carlton-/MLADOST je ponovo izgubila u gostima sa 0:2 protiv jakog East Brunswicka, tako da je pala na pre-tposlednje mesto. U subotu 27. avgusta igraju se sledece utakmice prve provizionalne divizije: Carlton/MLADOST v Monash University, Clayton v Lalor/SLOGA i Yarra-ville v Hawksburn.

TRECA PROVIZIONALNA DIVIZIJA

TRECA PROVIZIONALNA DIVIZIJA

MITCHAM — BRATSTVO/IEDINSTVO 0:0. Prvi put ove godine strelci "plavih" iz Springvala bili su jalovi na prvenstvenoj utakmici. Bilo je bezbroj priliko i ovog puta, ali nesto sjajan golman domaceg tima jos vise sportska nesreca sprecili su "plave" strelce da zatresu mrezu i ovog puta. Mozda bi bilo drukcije da je u pitanju prvenstvo, koje je dobljeno daleko pre zavrsetka secone. Najbolji jraci Dragan Janjic, Pero Dekic i Marin Basic Rezerve su igrale nereseno 1:1 (6:1). Strelac Goran Veljovic u 40 miatut, dok je golman Milan Tomic odbranio nedannesterac u 55 mianutu.

ALTONA/VOJVODINA — BURNLEY 4:0 (1:0).
Vojvodina je nastupila bez Paul Galla i Slobadana Dimitrijevskog, ali je ipak postigla visoku pobedu posle izvanređen jere. Strelci: Veljko Dupor, Strev Vonja iz jedanaesterca, Josip Pavic i Tome Dimovski. Najbolji igraci Veljko Dupor, Streve Vonja iz

PASCOE VALE/PELISTER — BRUNSWICK CITY 2:1 (1:9). Streici Jane Bogojevski i Danny McLachlan. Skroman rezultat, jer su igraci Pelistera potpuno nadigrali goste. Rezerva Pelistera takodje je pobedila sa 2:1 (2:0). Streici: Pero Perdevski i autogol. Juniori ispod 11 godina igrali su nereseno 1:1 sa George Crossom, dok su ispod 13 godina pobedili Mossfels a 8:0.

U subotu 27. avgusta igraju se sledece utakmice: Clarinda v Altona/Vojvodina, Hampton Wand. v Bratstvo/Jedinstvo i Uni of Melbourne v Pascoe Vale/PELISTER.

AMATERSKO PRVENSTVO

Posle nepamceno grube igre Westmeadows je po-bedio Bosnu sa 1:0 (:0), ali tek posto su zbog povrede napustili igraliste Ibro Hadziohdic i Milorad Velicko-vic. Bosna je jos uvek prva na tabeli sa 27 bodova, ali je u stopu prate Westall, Crvana zvezda i West-meadows po 28 bodova svaki. CRVENA ZVEZDA — ALBANIAN EAGLES 4:1 (2:0). Aca Dobrosavijevic je postigao 3 gola, posto je odigrao svoju najbolju utakmicu za Zvezdu. Poslednji gol dao je Dragam Mienkovic pred kraj igre. Trener Bosko Djordjevic prvi put je bio zadovoljan sa igrom svih igraca i smatra da Zvezda moze odbraniti naslov maaterskog prvaka, koji je osvojila prosle godine.
